Roanoke.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

ROANOKE, VA., July 20.—The marriage of Miss Griffin and Mr. Haley this week brought out an interesting fact. For a number of years Roanoke had an amateur theatrical organization, and Miss Griffin was the "leading lady" one year. Miss Franklin, who married in June, was also leading lady for a year. Now comes the interesting statement that eight ladies who acted leading roles (all connected with the club during the nine years) are happily married, which goes to show that the amateur stage promotes matrimony.

The Hotel Roanoke gave a complimentary german to the Roanoke German Club Friday night. A large number of visiting young ladies were participants, and it was one of the most charming affairs of the kind held for some time.
